

I oppose the weakening of Indiana's law regarding telephone privacy and do not wish for members of the Consumer Bankers Association to be able to call me at home. Please support the people, not the corporations. With all due respect, they already have enough of our time and money!